16. One day my mum showed me a video of a performance by my grandpa's teacher. The beatuiful puppets and their exciting movements amazed me. I suddenly remembered how much I loved this art. I posted my doubts online: "Well, should I continue?" To my surprise, the post was flooded with warm answers. Many people expressed their love for the art and encouraged me to hold on. A truth hit me — it was my responsibility to keep the art alive because the love for puppets was in my blood.The art will be popular again if young people are interested in it. So I held a puppet show at school.
