16. "One dollar and eighty seven cents. That was all. And sixty cents of it was in pennies." The story of "The Gift of Magi" begins with this line. "The Gift of the Magi" is a warm story. In the end, Della and Jim have no money, and nothing but the "useless" gifts for each other. But O. Henry does not invite us to laugh at the couple. Instead, he writes at the end that "they are the wisest". They have something much more important than money — they have love. 0 /5分
